

Questionnaire for Teaching our Teachers Workshop

Immediately prior to the beginning of the FULIR fall semester, the FULIR Curriculum Committee sponsored a workshop focusing on the particular skills and knowledge needed to teach adults, especially seniors. As follow-up to that effort, the Committee would like to know if you found the workshop helpful as you actually taught your class this fall. Your responses to the following questions will help decide whether the workshop will continue to be offered and, if so, how it might be improved.

I. Several topics were presented in the workshop designed to help with teaching techniques and strategies. Do you think they changed or improved your teaching? Check yes or no. If you would, please briefly describe how.

A. Andragogy v. pedagogy Yes _____ No _____

B. Needs of Adult Learners Yes _____ No _____

C. Getting Organized to Teach (syllabus, lesson planning) Yes _____ No _____

D. Asking and Answering Questions Yes _____ No _____

E. Personal Presentation Skills (body language, speaking skills, handling difficult situations) Yes _____ No _____

II. Please suggest how to improve the workshop. (New topics, different emphases, presentation format, location and setting, etc.) Please put your comments on back of this sheet.
