Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Dayton: For Seniors, by Seniors

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Dayton (UDLLI), now in its tenth year, offers seniors from the Greater Miami Valley the opportunity to join other active seniors in a variety of informal discussion seminars.

UDLLI members meet once a week with an informed moderator, usually a senior, to study a topic of their choice for their own satisfaction. They join in seminars for the enjoyment of reviving a long-neglected interest, exploring a new field or topic, satisfying curiosity and interacting with others.

Seminars meet for one and a half or two hours, usually just once a week. The four-to-eight-week courses are designed to fit personal schedules that may include travel, volunteer activities and other commitments.

Eligibility

You are eligible to join UDLLI if you are 50 years of age or better, or if you are the spouse of a member. UDLLI welcomes you, whether or not you have attended college in your youth. Your interest in learning and willingness to take part in seminar activities are the only requirements. No tests or term papers are involved!

Membership

The program fee is $60 per term. This entitles you to participate in as many to seminars as you wish to schedule. (Spouses also pay the fee.) Some seminars require purchasing a book or miscellaneous supplies. Some seminars require an off-site fee. (Individual course descriptions contain this information.)

As a member of UDLLI, you will receive a distinctive UDLLI name tag. These are distributed once a year and should be worn during each class session, so that your name becomes familiar to the moderator and to others in the class. You are encouraged to wear your name tag whenever you are on campus, since it identifies you as a part of the University, and at the same time draws the attention of others to the UDLLI program. Please note that normal distribution of name tags is on an annual basis. You are encouraged to retain that identification from one semester to another, so that the issuance of duplicate tags is not necessary.

UDLLI members, identified by their name tags, are welcome to use the Roesch Library and various other campus facilities and services, including the Adult Student Study Lounge in Kennedy Union 309, the Barrett Dining Room in Kennedy Union and the lounge in the McGinnis Center. Also available to UDLLI members is the Physical Activities Center (PAC). Admission fees may be paid by the visit or by year-long membership. Members regularly receive announcements of other programs, seminars and events on campus, and encouraged to attend, thus taking advantage of the variety of educational opportunities the University has to offer. The UDLLI bulletin board in the McGinnis Center carries announcements of such activities.

MONDAY CLASSES

Shared Inquiry, Great Books Discussion Group

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.
September 13 - October 18
Moderator: Annette Casella

This outstanding collection of fiction, philosophy, and poetry by an international array of respected authors is a powerful, well organized anthology well suited to our discussion time frame. The selections are 10 to 75 pages in length and the anthology contains discussion questions designed to help us explore each reading. We will be reading Love and Marriage with works by many authors. The book costs $15 and will be available for purchase at the first class.

Class length: 6 weeks.
Class limit: 20.

Annette Casella is a graduate of UD. She is a teacher, mother and volunteer. She has moderated the "Great Books" discussion groups through four previous LLL sessions.

Ancestors Among Us

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.
September 13 - October 18
Moderator: Dave Vickers

Who are your ancestors? Do you know them? Do you realize what influences they have had on you now? How do you find them? Where do you look? This seminar will introduce participants to the fascinating study of family history and describe steps that can be taken to learn more about your family's ancestors.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Dave Vickers is associated with the authoritative Genealogical Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Fairborn and has lectured widely on getting started on genealogy and pursuing family history in depth.

Cross-Cultural Travel Tips

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

September 13 - September 27
Moderator: Lorayne Mundy

In order to enjoy travel to foreign and exotic lands, you must understand cultural differences and do pre-travel homework to get the best info on planes, trains and travel tips. This course is divided into 3 classes: Europe, Middle East, and Far East. We will look at cultural differences, travel tips on trains, how to save money, how to bargain with an Arab in the market, how to travel safely and how to shop for antiques in Japan. Get the most out of your trip.

Class length: 3 weeks.

Lorayne Mundy is a recently retired civilian/DOD for the USN. Lorayne spent 23 years purchasing planes and equipment for Foreign Military Sales (FMS). Lorayne has traveled extensively in Europe, Middle East and Far East. She has over 400 college credits in Acquisition Logistics and FMS and received Meritous Civilian Service Medal in 2003.

The Court System

McGinnis Center
9:30 – 11:30 a.m.
September 28 - October 26
Moderator: Judge Patrick Foley

Most of us are impacted by the court system in some way, as a citizen, as a juror, as a witness, as an injured victim, as one accused of a crime, etc. This seminar will explore the importance of serving on a jury, how jurors are selected, how criminal and civil cases are commenced, the role of the Grand Jury, the various types of courts, how trials are prepared and conducted, and the rules of evidence and procedure applied by the judges. Alternative ways to resolve disputes will be discussed, including mediation and arbitration. Other subjects will include the importance of the Constitution, the manner in which judges are selected, sentencing options and appeals. Judge Foley and other speakers will present the topics.

Class length: 5 weeks.
Class limit: 25.

Judge Foley was a Montgomery County Common Pleas Judge from 1991 until 2000. Before that, he was a practicing attorney in Dayton from 1959 til 1990, and a part time County Court Judge. He has taught the course on Negotiation and Mediation at the UD Law School, and serves as a mediator on request.

Juggling Life at the Top and

More

McGinnis Center
9:30 – 11:30 a.m.
September 14 - October 12
Moderator: Mike Hout

Learn the ancient secrets of juggling and top throwing. Scarves are a great way to start juggling but we will progress to bean bags, rings, clubs and bowling balls. Chainsaws will be provided. Another highlight of the course is the top life. Come join the fun battles in our top spinning arena. No one has been injured in these battles yet. Join us and you could be the first! Other fun activities of note include plate spinning, diabolo tossing, chattering buzzing, peacock feather balancing and more. If you already have experience at any of these thrilling activities, then you can join us and sharpen your skills. Also, the instructor is always looking for someone to pass around time with (and around).

Class length: 5 weeks.

Mike Hout is a Lutheran pastor at St. Jacob in historic downtown Miamisburg. He is a 1971 graduate of the dynamic Delaware Hayes Pacers and a 1975 grad of the pride of the purple, Capital University. He has won a number of world championships in juggling (juggling while running) and is a highly respected top spinner.

WEDNESDAY CLASSES

The Letters of St. Paul

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

September 15 - October 6

Moderator: Vincent Branick

A careful look at the correspondence of Paul of Tarsus with his churches, situating the writings in the historical concerns of the time and looking to see what his positions can say about the Christian faith of his time and our time. We will examine how the Acts of the Apostles presents Paul, and we will also look at the writings attributed to Paul which are also in our Bibles to see how all these writings form the first interpretations of Paul.

Class length: 4 weeks.

A frequent contributor to UDLLI, Dr. Branick has been a professor at UD for over 25 years. He regularly teaches courses in St. Paul and in the Old Testament Prophets, along with business ethics. His book Understanding in the New Testament and Its Message, is widely used as an introductory text. He has also published articles in the Catholic Biblical Quarterly. The Journal of Biblical Studies, and The Journal of Ecumenical Studies.

A History of the American Revolution

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m

September 15 – October 20

Moderator: Mark Cannon

This course begins with an exploration of events leading up to the violence of Lexington and Concord. The conflict was not a simple tax revolt, but was due to different and incompatible interpretations of the British Constitution by the colonists and by Parliament. Military campaigns will be viewed from the points of view of all participants: American, British, French and Spanish. After 1777, the war for America became a world wide war, with France and Spain trying to avenge their defeat by Britain in the Seven Years War.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Class limit: 22.

Mark Cannon is a retired scientist with an avid interest in history. He has created and moderated several history courses for UDLLL--A History of England for Tourists, Campaigns and Leaders of WW II, and The Great War--New Perspectives.

UDLLI Lunchtime Lectures

Wednesday, September 22, 2004

11:30 a.m. - 12:20 p.m.

McGinnis Center Multi-purpose Room

Dale Huffman of the Dayton Daily News

Dale Huffman of the Dayton Daily News, seems to show up everywhere, especially if the event is newsworthy, or for a good cause. He is not only a popular newspaper columnist, an author, and a television and radio talk show host, he has become a media personality. The walls in his home and office hold over 300 plaques awarded to him for his civic involvement, his charity work and his writing ability. His most prestigious award came from President Bush who summoned Dale to the White House and designated him our nation's One Thousand and First Point of Light. The Montgomery County Commissioners named Dale the official and permanent Ambassador of Goodwill for Montgomery County.

Free to the public; just bring a sack lunch. Vending machines are available for soft drinks. If you have suggestions for future speakers, please call Special Programs and Continuing Education at 229-2605.

Exercise for Mature Adults

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.
September 16 - November 4
Moderator: Joanne Gabriela

Come one and all, both the fit and the frail. Have fun exercising while you gain health benefits. Through lecture and exercise videos, we will focus on four types of exercise - stretching, strengthening, aerobics, and balance. We'll also practice good posture, coordination, and relaxation. Recommended book: *Exercise: A Guide from the National Institute of Aging, free from Uncle Sam at 1-800-222-2225, Publication No. NIH 98-4258.
Class length: 8 weeks.
Class limit: 15.

Joanne Gabriela has a BA, MA, and MBA from UD. She has spent most of her career in marketing at Frigidaire and NCR. Currently she volunteers with the Miami Valley Literacy Council and various kidney organizations.

A House Filled with Words

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.
September 16 - October 21
Moderator: Daniel Meixner

During my childhood, my mother often exclaimed that there were so many words floating around our house from her five children that she had to occasionally bag them up and store them in the attic. In this interactive course, participants will discuss, debate and laugh about being parents and grandparents - and talk about helping their grown-up children deal with marriage, parenthood, career, faith, and life. Often, emotion overrules logic and history triumphs over reality as adult children strive to maintain independence from their family of birth and parents work to continue involvement in their children's lives. We'll learn from each other what works and what is guaranteed to only add many more words to the attic.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Dan Meixner, a native Daytonian and graduate of Chamblade-Julienne and the University of Notre Dame, has three sisters, a brother, two parents, a wife, two daughters, and seventeen nieces and nephews. He gave up trying to remember all their birthdays years ago. He is a strategic consultant and executive coach who works with leaders of business and not-for-profit organizations to help them strengthen their planning, marketing and leadership skills.

Believe It and You Will See It

McGinnis Center
12:30 - 2:30 p.m.
September 23 - October 28
Moderator: John Kordik

Men and Women...feel young at heart! Put more life into your life...become aware of your greatness! This seminar explores how to feel good about ourselves. We are what we think! We'll find that humor and feeling good go hand in hand; that positive thought and subconscious mind power play an important role in our self-esteem. Mind/body connection, "happy" thoughts, making friends, affirmations and visualizations are a few of the topics to be presented. You are great and powerful in this world; you are unique! You make a difference; you are a gift to the world! We will explore the miracle of ourselves. Life is for living! It is better to wear out than rust out. We will relax and feel good. This seminar continues to evolve with added material each program series.
Class length: 6 weeks.

John Kordik is a public speaker, moderator/facilitator, past president and 12 year past member of Megacity Toastmasters International. He gives 12 to 15 talks to various local groups, such as prayer groups, widows and widowers support groups, young peoples groups, T.O.P.S. group, etc. each year. This is his 15th series of lectures for the UDLLI.

From Age-ing to Sage-ing

McGinnis Center
12:30 - 2:30 p.m.
September 16 - October 21
Moderator: Carol and Jerry Bourne

In the mid 1990's, Zalman Schachter-Shalomi developed the Spiritual Eldering® work to create a new vision of growing older - a vision that transforms simple "age-ing" into lifelong "sage-ing." In this course, we will use the rabbi's work to learn to consciously live our days filled with wisdom, joy, and meaning; harvest our life's experiences; and connect to the spiritual source of what is best within us. Through this process, participants can find affirmation for the importance of their elder years, experience empowerment to harvest their life's wisdom, learn tools for creating legacies for future generations and discover their Inner Elder. Planned activities include journaling, videotapes, meditation, imaginal exercises, music and discussion.
Class length: 6 weeks.

Jerry Bourne is a graduate of Xavier University and was an industrial trainer with a number of large corporations. Carol Bourne has both a BS in Education and an MA in communication from the University of Dayton and was an English and communication skills teacher at Fairmont High School. Jerry has been a Dale Carnegie Instructor for 10 years.

Financial Planning and Investments

McGinnis Center
3:00 - 5:00 p.m.
September 16 - November 4
Moderator: Lou Lunne

The days of just putting your nest egg in a safe place and forgetting about it are gone. Whatever the stage of life or level of resources, the individual or couple today has to be an investor in the truest sense of the word. This educational opportunity is designed to enable participants to gain a higher confidence level and learn how to actually enjoy the role of investor. The moderator will lead the group through basic principles of financial planning and investments with emphasis on the key factors in analyzing stocks, bonds, mutual funds and annuities.

Class length: 8 weeks.
Class limit: 20.

Lou Lunne received his BS from the University of Dayton and his MBA from Xavier University. He has over thirty years of experience in the financial services industry, and is a financial advisor with American Express. In addition to this course, Lou is also moderating the Estate Planning course.

Shakespeare's Pairs of Lovers

McGinnis Center
3:00 - 5:00 p.m.
September 16 - November 4
Moderator: Cecile Cary

The class will examine diverse looks at love in three Shakespearean plays entitled with lovers' names: Romeo and Juliet, Troilus and Cressida, and Antony and Cleopatra. Recommended Text: The Signet editions of: Romeo and Juliet, Troilus and Cressida, Antony and Cleopatra. You can purchase the plays from Amazon.com.
Class length 6 weeks.
Class limit: 20.

Cecile Cary is retired from Wright State University, where she taught literature for 33 years. Her specialties included early British literature, Shakespeare and Elizabethan drama. She was the recipient of a Fullbright grant for study in France, authored a number of articles, mostly on Elizabethan drama, twice hosted the Ohio Shakespeare Conference at Wright State and edited a volume titled Shakespeare and the Arts. In 2002, she taught "Shakespeare's Controversial Plays" and in 2003 "Shakespeare's Comedies: Text and Film" and "Shakespeare's Late Plays: from Tragedy to Romance" for UDL.

Election 2004 and the Future of the American Democracy

McGinnis Center
3:00 - 5:00 p.m.
September 16 - October 21
Moderator: Gerald E. Kerns

Every presidential election gets characterized as a watershed but this time around there may be some real truth to that characterization. Election 2000 revealed that the nation is divided. The division occurs over economic matters, cultural issues, judicial appointments and foreign policy. Key questions confront candidates incumbent George Bush and challenger John Kerry: joblessness amidst supposed recovery; outsourcing of jobs; tax cuts in the face of mounting deficits; the crisis in health care insurance; the future of Iraq, the fight against Al Qaeda, the Bush Doctrines of unilateralism and preemptive war as guides to foreign policy. All of these matters and the sharp divisions amongst the people over their resolution raise serious questions about the stability of the American democracy. There is much to ponder as the nation goes to the polls this November.
Class length: 6 weeks.

Gerald Kerns is Professor Emeritus of Political Science at UD. For 35 years he taught American Politics, Civil Liberties, Constitutional Law and Judicial Process and was Chair of the Political Science Department from 1978 - 1990 and Pre-Law Chair from 1974 - 1989 at UD.

Handbell Ringing for "First Timers"

Epiphany Lutheran Church
1:00 - 2:30 p.m.
September 16 - November 4
Moderator: Dolores Anderson

Learn the fundamentals of handbell ringing in a recreational setting. We'll play songs in the very first session! Music reading is helpful but not essential. Experience a variety of handbell techniques and work with "beginner friendly" music scores. The goal is to make music together as an ensemble of eight to thirteen ringers.

Class fee: $6.00 (due at first class).
Class length: 8 weeks.
Class limit: 13.

Dolores Anderson has a music degree from Northwestern University and a music therapy degree from UD. She has over 20 years experience with handbells and handchimes. As a music therapist, Dolores has written a series of fourteen books for use with handchimes that music therapists and music educators use with populations who do not read music at all. These books, called 12 Toners System, allow people to play the melody lines of songs and chordal accompaniments.

Handbell Ringing "Beyond the Basics"

Epiphany Lutheran Church
3:00 - 4:30 p.m.
October 16 - November 4
Moderator: Dolores Anderson

This class is for people who have some ringing experience and wish to explore new techniques such as "shell" and "four in hand" while playing a variety of bell positions. We'll also experiment with a variety of inviting and entertaining music arrangements in a recreational setting without performance pressure.

Class fee: $6.00 (due at first class).
Class length: 8 weeks.
Class limit: 13.

FRIDAY CLASSES

Introduction to Digital Photography

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.
September 17 - October 22
Moderator: Raymond Smith

This course is designed to provide basic information on digital camera technology and techniques. We will also explore digital camera features, functions, and basic photography skills. In addition, we will explore your options for obtaining great prints from your digital camera -- from printing at home to receiving prints from commercial labs.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Raymond Smith has over 40 years of photography experience. Smith has been awarded the title of Certified Photographic Consultant from The Photo Marketing Association - one of the highest awards given in the retail photographic industry.

Embracing Aging, Changing, and Dying

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

September 17 - October 22

Moderator: Judy Rowse

As a wise person once said, "Growing old isn't for sissies." This lecture-discussion class will focus on the aging process in a youth-oriented culture. We will use Ram Dass' book, Still Here, as an impetus for discussion. Dass uses humor and personal stories to guide the reader through the demons of aging (senility, loneliness, loss of role, depression, and fear.) The last class will look at Hospice's role in a "good death." Class members are encouraged to share their own stories and their wisdom cultivated from living in the world. Still Here, by Ram Dass can be picked up at Books & Co. at the Special Orders desk. Read chapters 1 & 2. Class length: 6 weeks. Class limit: 25.

Judy Rowse has a BA in English from Ohio Northern University and a Masters Degree from Ohio State University. She is a licensed social worker and has been working as a bereavement counselor and social worker with Hospice of Dayton, Clinton County Office, for 12 years. She has done adjunct teaching at Wilmington College and Southern State College.

Intermediate Genealogy

McGinnis Center
9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

September 17 - October 22

Moderator: Dave Vickers

Class members will select on the first day of class, from a variety of genealogical subjects. Based on class interests and priority five topics will be selected. An entire class session will be dedicated to that subject. Some of the past selections have been: Using the Census, Internet Genealogy, Using US Land Records, Irish Genealogy, German Research and more.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Dave Vickers is associated with the authoritative Genealogical Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Fairborn and has lectured widely on getting started on genealogy and pursuing family history in depth.

Will Christians Be Lonely In Heaven?

McGinnis Center
12:30 - 2:30 p.m.

September 17 - October 22

Moderator: Charles Carroll

This comparative religion course will examine four major faith traditions: Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, and Islam. Minor consideration will also be given to Taoism, Jainism, Sikhism, Confucianism, Shintoism, and Baha'i. The presumed exclusive franchise on salvation held by many Christians has been challenged with a rethinking of the truths found in Non-Christian world religions.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Class limit: 24.

A graduate of the University of Dayton and the Ohio State University where he earned his doctoral degree, Dr. Carroll is Professor Emeritus at Ball State University in Indiana. Since retiring, he has earned advanced certification in the Catechetical Ministry of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

Tai Chi Chaun

McGinnis Center
1:00 - 2:30 p.m.

September 17 - October 22

Moderator: John Meese

Tai Chi and Chi Gung introduces the traditional Yang Gig posture style. It consists of a series of slow continuously flowing movements in a sequenced pattern. When practiced regularly, Tai Chi may reenergize your body, lower blood pressure, increase flexibility and improve balance. Breathing techniques will also be taught. A variety of the material taught, Tai Chi Chuan (Yang Style), may be purchased at TAMA martial Arts Center, 1753 Woodman Drive or at class.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Class limit: 20.

John Meese trained with Master Tanningco, founder of TAMA, since 1986. Trained in Tai Chi Chaun since 1992. Taught last year at Huber Heights Senior Center.

Money Management for Women

McGinnis Center
3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

September 17 - October 15

Moderator: Sheila Newlin

More women have stepped into the position of financial decision maker and are seeking information to help them in this important role. The average age of widowhood is 56. Most women have not earned as much as their spouses, therefore receive less social security and pension benefits. Many women are not sure where they stand financially, as the planning process has been left to their partner. This course is designed to prepare women to become financially confident. It will provide essential information every woman must know to make decisions that will affect her financial security. You will learn that investments aren't complicated, how to evaluate insurance needs, how to protect against inflation and taxes and other important aspects of being able to make good financial decisions. This course is not exclusive to women; gentlemen are most welcome to participate. Class length: 5 weeks.

Sheila M. Newlin received her BA from the University of Houston and her MSC from the Brookes University, Oxford. She has 30 years experience in the financial services industry and is a Regional Vice President with Primerica Financial Services. She has conducted numerous seminars and workshops designed to help educate women about personal finances and money management.

Beginning Yoga

McGinnis Center

3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

September 17 - October 22

Moderator: Joanne Hillelson

The practice of Yoga is an excellent way to exercise the body and relieve stress in the body, mind and spirit. Gentle stretching to attain flexibility and the development of classic yoga positions relieve tension and massage the whole body. This program is geared toward those who have wanted to get into yoga. Lotus position is not required! Please wear loose fitting clothes and bring your own mat.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Class limit: 30.

Joanne Hillelson is currently teaching medical terminology and medical/surgical transcription at Sinclair Community College. She received her yoga certification from Center for Yoga of Seattle.

Making Informed Choices: Republicans and the 2004 Election

NEW!

McGinnis Center

3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

September 17- October 22

Moderator: Phillip Skardon

The course will be comprehensive in that it will examine the Republican Party from its origins in the 19th century to the present, with emphasis on current issues, candidates and organization at the national, state and local levels. Considerable time will be devoted to defining and discussing issues that pertain to the 2004 election. Commentaries by the moderator will precede the discussion, for which participants will be asked to prepare by reading newspapers and periodicals, listening to the radio and watching television. Handouts will be used to supplement these sources when desirable. As appropriate, and depending on availability, local party officials and candidates will be invited to offer explanations, share views, and answer questions.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Class limit 20.

Phillip Skardon's principal work activities have been writing and editing. He has been a newspaper-man, an editor, a political analyst, and a management consultant. In terms of political activities, he has aided campaigns for the US Senate and the US House and currently serves as GOP Central Committeeman from Oakwood-A precinct. Phillip graduated from Yale University in 1949 and is married for 38 years with four grown sons.

How to Win or Lose or Draw

Abroad

McGinnis Center

9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Oct 25, 26, 27, 28, 29

Moderator: Frank Henninger

We Americans are being forced to examine our relationships with other people and cultures, as well as our own strengths and weaknesses. When better to consult similarly concerned artist experts? No one treats the subject more precisely and completely than Henry James in his easily read The American which explores our ability and inability to deal with diverse, and sometimes evil, humans of other ways. And we'll double-check our discoveries with some comparisons of our thinking with Emily Dickinson's. Participants should read, first, James' "Daisy Miller," and then "The American," carefully, BEFORE the course begins. They should also bring with them, the first day, any collection of Dickinson's poetry. How do we get out of this mess.

Dr. Frank Henninger has a PhD in American Studies, has been a college professor since 1958 and has taught for many years in the CORE program at the University of Dayton.

Computer Basics

Miriam Hall RM 11

To Be Announced

Moderator: Bob Sherman

An introduction to the various Windows operating systems, including desktop organization, use of various file systems, organization of folders and files, program usage, Internet access and the World Wide Web. There will be a heavy emphasis on hands-on activities in a lab setting to reinforce important concepts.

Class length: 6 weeks.

Class limit: 20.

Bob Sherman has a Bachelors degree from UD and a Masters degree from Miami. He is the holder of multiple certifications from Microsoft for Windows 2000 and NT. He currently teaches a variety of Windows 2000 courses as an assistant professor at Sinclair Community College. Bob previously worked for NCR for over 20 years in a variety of capacities including software development and support for the financial industry, and teaching customers and NCR employees courses on operating systems and applications software.

Classes of Membership

Participating: Participating in a UDLLI seminar automatically makes you a UDLLI member for the current academic year. Each participating member enrolled in any one semester of the academic year may vote at the Annual Meeting of UDLLI, where new members of the UDLLI Board of Governors are nominated and elected and other business is conducted.

Friends of the Institute: Individuals, corporations, community organizations and local governments interested in supporting UDLLI's goals of scholarship and enrichment may join the Friends by contributing $50 or more per year to the program. Each Friend has one vote at the UDLLI Annual Meeting. Volunteer seminar moderators and speakers also become Friends for the academic year in which they volunteer. In recognition of their service and as a gesture of the UDLLI's gratitude for that service, moderators and their spouses may participate in other seminars during that same year at no charge.

Life Membership: Life memberships are open to individuals who contribute $1,000 or more to the University of Dayton's Lifelong Learning Institute. Life Members receive all membership privileges and may enroll in UDLLI seminars at no fee.

Interested persons may review the UDLLI By-Laws, on file in the Special Programs and Continuing Education Office in O'Reilly Hall on the UD campus.

Attendance

In fairness to members who are closed out of a particular seminar, if you cannot attend the first class session, you must notify Special Programs and Continuing Education (the UDLLI Office) at 229-2347 or you will automatically be dropped from that seminar. Please do not attend a seminar if you have not been notified that you are registered in that seminar since each classroom has a specific limit.

“Anyone who stops learning is old, whether twenty or eighty. Anyone who keeps learning today is young. The greatest thing in life is to keep your mind young.”

How to Register for UDLLI Seminars

You can register for UDLLI seminars using the Online Registration at www.pware.com/2394, or by completing and mailing the Registration Form. Registrations and class changes will be accepted by mail, fax, or drop off until September 6. Online registration will begin July 26.

After July 23, telephone registrations will be accepted. However, we encourage you to register early as we expect seminars to fill quickly. (If fewer than ten persons register for a seminar, it may be cancelled.)

Participants are registered for seminars in the order in which their registration is received, so sign up early. All seminars have a limited number of participants due to limits set by the moderator as well as classroom size limits. If you register, but are closed out of any seminar(s), you will be automatically put on a waiting list for that class and will be notified by the Special Programs and Continuing Education Office if an opening occurs.

Your $60 fee for the Fall term entitles you to take part in as many seminars as you wish to schedule. Payment for seminars is due at the time of registration. If you use Online Registration, a bill will be mailed with your confirmation letter. Check or money order should be made payable to the University of Dayton. The deadline for refund of the $60 registration fee is September 7. After that date, refunds are not possible but substitution of participants is always acceptable.

A confirmation letter will be sent to you after we receive your registration, providing information about the location of your seminar(s) and our UD shuttle service.

Questions? Call the Special Programs and Continuing Education Office, 229-2347. If you receive more than one brochure, please pass it on to a friend.

Online Registration

In order to register online for the Fall 2004 UDLLI seminars, follow these simple steps . . .

1. Log on to <http://www.peopleware.net/2394>
2. Click on Senior Programs.
3. Click on Fall 2004 Lifelong Learning Institute under the “Available events” title.
4. Click on Fall 2004 Lifelong Learning Institute under the “Available subevents” title.
5. Follow the easy prompts that guide you through the rest of the registration process.

Please use capital and lowercase letters when entering your registration information.

After registering for classes online, you should receive your confirmation letter and bill in approximately one week!

Parking

Information

UDLLI has a shuttle bus service for members attending seminars on the main campus or at the McGinnis Center. Service will be provided from a secure parking lot at the UD Arena to the McGinnis Center and the main campus on a regular schedule.

You will receive details about the shuttle service with the packet confirming your registration.

Parking at the McGinnis Center has been reduced significantly by the construction of ArtStreet, a two-year project bringing living and learning together for students in the neighborhood.

A portion of the parking lot at the UDLLI Arena will be dedicated to LLI members. The Arena lobby will open to UDLLI members at 8:30 a.m. for the short wait for the next shuttle bus. However, please note that UDLLI members will have to leave the lot by 6 p.m. when the lot will close. There will be no overnight parking permitted at the UD Arena lot.

Buses will take members from the UD Arena parking lots to the steps of the McGinnis Center.

From there, the buses will go up University Circle and drop members off near St. Mary's Hall, return those heading to the parking lot, and begin the route again. Buses will adhere to a schedule built around UDILR classes to minimize waiting time.

This year, members will not need to purchase permits to park during the day in the UD Arena parking lot or to ride the shuttle. To obtain a complimentary parking/shuttle permit, check the box on the registration form. You will receive your parking/shuttle permit with your registration confirmation. Along with your confirmation, you will receive a map showing the location of the UDLLI lot at the UD Arena.

Parking/shuttle permits will be honored on the UD campus after 4:30 p.m. during the week and anytime on the weekends.

Please note that all campus parking facilities are controlled by the University of Dayton Parking Services Department.

If you have any questions for the Parking Services Office, it is located in Benisek Hall, 229-2128.

UDLLI cannot assume any responsibility for citations for illegal parking. Parking citations are the responsibility of the member.

If you have a State hand-capped license plate and/or a State sticker, UD Parking Services Department wants you to have a "Special" Parking Permit. If you have specific questions about handicap facilities or need further information about parking, please call Special Programs and Continuing Education at 229-2347.

You may want to arrive early, especially the first week, to give yourself plenty of time to find parking at the Arena, catch the shuttle bus and find the location of your classroom.

The RTA has many stops near the University of Dayton campus and offers discounts to seniors. Call the RTA Ride Line at 226-
