ETHEREAL MUSIC UNDER THE STARS....

a Night with

Carolyn Currie

"Be prepared to experience insight, reflection, humor and beauty... her music is utterly spell-binding."

- Femme Musique

*Saturday, December 12, 2009
7:00 p.m.*

The Southworth Planetarium is pleased to once again host Singer/Songwriter Carolyn Currie. On the night of December 12, Ms. Currie performs both new works from her latest CD, "Waves of Silence," and songs from previous CDs, such as "Standing Stones," and "Kiss of Ghosts." Carolyn's music has been described as "contemporary folk incorporating both cosmic and Celtic elements." We invite you to experience Carolyn's enchanting music in the Southworth Planetarium's underground star dome.

Special Guest performer: Celeste Krenz

Celebrated folk singer Celeste Krenz will join Carolyn Currie for this special night of music under the stars. Celeste has released 10 albums, the latest entitled "My Mother and Me." Her voice has been described as "a pure, sweet voice as pure as the American plains"

The Colorado Daily wrote the following about Celeste's music:
"Meticulously drawn songwriting, equal parts torch and poetry, brain and soul."
