Certified Mail

Place on the front of the envelope
Do not place the sticker section over the address on the envelope

- Certified Mail service provides the sender with a mailing receipt.
- The recipient signs a delivery receipt — PS Form 3849.
- Customers may obtain the delivery record by purchasing return receipt service and providing a complete return address on the mail piece.
- A Certified Mail item is dispatched and handled in transit as ordinary mail. No insurance is provided.
- Only mailable matter on which postage is paid at a First-Class Mail rate (including Priority Mail service) may be accepted for Certified Mail service.
Return Receipt

Place on the back of the envelope. Remove paper backing from backside of card and stick it on the back of the envelope.

- Return receipt service provides a mail owner with evidence of delivery (to whom the mail was delivered and the date of delivery).
- A return receipt also provides the recipient’s actual delivery address if it is different from the address used by the sender.
- A mailer who receives the return receipt by mail receives the actual signature on PS Form 3811, Domestic Return Receipt.

SPECIAL MAIL SERVICES

Insured Mail

Place on the front of the envelope
Do not place the sticker section over the address on the envelope

- Insured mail service provides the sender with a mailing receipt.
- For articles insured for more than $200, the Postal Service maintains a delivery record (recipient’s signature).
- Insured mail pieces are dispatched and handled in transit as ordinary mail.
- In addition, the mail must bear the complete names and addresses of both the sender and the addressee.
Registered Mail

Place on the front of the envelope
Do not place the sticker section over the address on the envelope

- Registered Mail service is the most secure service that the Postal Service offers. It utilizes a system of receipts to monitor the movement of the mail from the point of acceptance to the point of delivery.
- Registered Mail service provides the sender with PS Form 3806, Receipt for Registered Mail, as a mailing receipt.
- The recipient signs a delivery receipt — PS Form 3849 — and the Postal Service stores the delivery information, including the recipient’s signature.
- Only mailable matter on which postage is paid at a First-Class Mail rate (including Priority Mail service) may be registered. The face (address side) of the registered article must be at least 5 inches wide and 3-1/2 inches high, regardless of thickness.

PREPARING A BULK MAILING

- First Grouping:
  All the following zip codes can go into the same tray with tabs separating them (only first 3 digits)
  - 040 042 045
  - 041 043 048

- Second Grouping:
  All the following zip codes can go into another tray with tabs (only first 3 digits)
  - 044 047
  - 046 049

- Third Grouping:
  All the following zip codes can go into another tray with tabs (only first 3 digits)
  - 038
  - 039
  - and all other out of state zip codes in Numerical Order

We only need to use rubber bands in a bulk mailing for large flats (large yellow envelopes for example) and postcards. We would put about 25 pieces (Flats) in each using 2 rubber bands. Rubber bands are not to obscure the zip codes. For Post Cards it is as many as can fit in RB
