SELECT 4 CLASSES FROM THE FOLLOWING, with specific requirements listed below:

One three-credit LIN course at any level, excluding courses focused on interpreting and excluding LIN 498, or one of the language-based courses offered by the English Department: ENG 230, 330, 337, 338, 431.

One three-credit 300- or 400-level LIN course, excluding courses focused on interpreting and excluding LIN 498, or ASL 416

Two three-credit 400-level LIN courses (excluding courses focused on interpreting and excluding LIN 498)

Language requirement:

Students pursuing the general linguistics major must complete four semesters of a language or languages other than their native language. Students may choose to take four semesters of the same language or to divide the four courses among two or more different languages. The language courses may be waived on a case-by-case basis for students who demonstrate the equivalent degree of competency in a language or languages. In such cases, students replace the language course credits with other linguistics courses (or possibly with linguistics-related courses in other areas). The substitutions are made in consultation with the student's advisor.

Note: Linguistics majors must complete their QR requirement with either a Statistics or MAT-prefixed course.
