CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS

The University of Southern Maine complies with the Family Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) which protects the student from the disclosure of personal information with the exception of the following "Public Directory" elements: name, date of birth, major, dates of attendance, degree, academic honors, previous institution attended, class year, and participation in activities and sports. The law also guarantees the student access to his or her records and gives the student the right to prohibit the disclosure of "Public Directory" information. A copy of the USM Confidentiality of Student Records Policy may be obtained at www.usm.maine.edu/reg. Please contact the Registrar’s Office at 780-5230 directly for additional clarification.
