SALARY PAYMENT SCHEDULE

In accordance with the policies of the University of Maine System Board of Trustees, faculty members with fixed length, tenure track or tenured appointments, and either academic or fiscal work years receive their salaries in twelve equal installments, September through August. Part time regular faculty with one-year renewable appointments also receives salary payments on this schedule. Part time temporary faculty teaching on a contract per course basis receive salary payments, if possible, in September, October, November, and December for courses taught in the Fall; and January, February, March, April, and May for courses taught in the Spring. Paychecks or bank deposits are issued on the last business day of the month.
