October Musings from the Chair:

Now more than ever, I am convinced that Leadership Matters. It matters in our schools, our communities, our homes, our campuses, our neighborhoods, our state, our nation, and in our world. One leadership motto I have clung to for the past decade is “Be the leader you would want to follow.” It causes me pause on a regular basis. When I reflect on a tough meeting or day (or week) and consider my actions and demeanor, this motto sometimes causes me to stop in my tracks.

- Am I the leader I would want to follow even if I disagreed with me?
- Did I empower others to become better leaders or to simply follow me?
- Did I inspire and foster intellectual curiosity in others or simply encourage compliance?
- Did I demonstrate empathy, compassion, courage, and respect even when it was not being reflected my way?
- Do I listen more than I talk?
- Did I actively seek alternate ideas, perspectives, solutions, and feedback?
- Has my behavior engendered trust?
- Did I behave in a way that is congruent with what I say are my philosophies and mission?
Did I walk the talk and talk the walk?
- Am I busy doing “the right work” or just busy?
- Am I willing to admit when I make mistakes and seek appropriate remedies for my errors or misconceptions?
- What more do I need to learn? What perspectives are missing?
- Am I truly serving others or myself?

Educational Leadership Newsletter

I am quite convinced that I have one of the best jobs on the planet. I have the opportunity to consider the aforementioned questions regularly on my own, but most importantly, in collaboration with the amazing cadre of Educational Leadership faculty (full and part-time), our talented graduate students, our dedicated Advisory Committee members, our SEHD and university faculty and staff, our Southern Maine Partnership participants, and over five decades of alumni and friends of the program!

Because leadership truly does matter, we invite you to make time to regularly consider the aforementioned questions (and others of your own) and to take appropriate steps in the unending process of improving your leadership skills and the skills of those around you.

Surrounding yourself with other reflective leaders is one way to become the adaptive, reflective leader you seek to become. Whatever your leadership role, goal, status, or dream may be, we invite you to join us for an Educational Leadership course, a certificate program, or a degree program to continue your growth trajectory as a leader.

We seek to grow and support teacher leaders, building level leaders, department leaders, district leaders, and state leaders. We have courses, programs, and events to support a wide array of leadership interests. Please see the rest of the newsletter for upcoming spring courses and SMP events.

Wishing you an inspired month,

Anita Stewart McCafferty

Southern Maine Partnership Update

The Fall season of events for the Southern Maine Partnership has begun for our school-university partnership.

School Visits: The meeting of school principals and school leaders took place at Gorham High School on October 5. The topic was Auxilium, the school's academic and enrichment program. Principal Brian Jandreau led the general discussion and a dozen students helped facilitate small group discussions. We greatly appreciate their collaborative contribution; it was an incredible learning experience for all 25 of the educational leaders who participated!

Next on the list of schools to visit is Casco Bay High School. On November 30, 8:30 – 10:00 am, Principal Derek Pierce will host a visit around the topic: Differentiation and Equity Literacy. Please RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/ZxwfQQFFuQZQGCiB2>

Assessment Literacy Series: Train the Trainer Modules, Part 2. The two-part series on Assessment Literacy began on October 12 with over 25 participants. We had principals, curriculum coordinators and teachers involved in working on the latest concepts and strategies to harness the power of assessment for learning. Anita and Jeff will present more of the modules we have developed on assessment for learning. The modules are available online and we encourage you to use for your own school's professional learning.

Educational Leadership Newsletter

Even if you missed the first day you are encouraged to help us continue this vital dialogue and to join us for the second day on December 4, 8:00 am – 3:00 pm. Location: Abromson Room 109/110 OR 7th Floor Glickman Library, Portland campus

To RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/9SiWDCW5RV0C0EIN2>

Coaching as Teaching. The special guest for the November 16, 4:00 – 6:00 pm, Dine and Discuss is Coach Harry Marra, with the topic, The Art of Coaching: How it is EXACTLY the same as The Art of Teaching.

“Legendary coach Harry Marra coached 2012 Jesse Owens Award winner Ashton Eaton to consecutive Olympic Gold medals (2012 and 2016), two world records, a World Indoor title and an Olympic gold medal in 2012.

Marra’s top athletes also include NCAA indoor pentathlon record holder Theisen, Paul Terek, Sheldon Blockburger, Bart Goodell, Paul Foxon, Brian Brophy and Steve Koel.” Runner’s Universe. <https://www.runnerprogram.com/product/harry-marra-decathlon-training/>

Coach Marra is dedicated to the question - how do we continue to surpass standards, even ones we have met and exceeded? He is committed to the concept that coaching is all about teaching, and vice versa. This will be a great evening to explore the spirit of the educator and the athlete in all of us. <https://spikes.iaaf.org/post/when-harry-marra-met-the-eatons>

Location: Wishcamper, Room 133 (Lee Auditorium)

To RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/fhggr9lyGELdGdih1>

GIFTS (Great Ideas for Teaching Students/Staff). December 11, 4:00 – 6:00 pm. Share your latest classroom and professional practice with colleagues and join the fun professional networking. Guaranteed you will walk away with great ideas to use the next day!

Location: Abromson 109/110

To RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/cUpcg865i3EBMVq43>

We are proud to partner with all of the wonderful educators in Southern Maine and invite you to join with us or tell colleagues about our unique professional-learning opportunities.

Anita, Jeff, and Jody had the privilege of attending the Cumberland and York County Superintendents Association meetings during September and October. We appreciate the opportunity to collaborate with our region's district leaders. Thank you for the invite, Dr. Prince and Dr. Hawes!

Thinking About Internship in 2018-2019?

I think I am ready for the Ed. Leadership Internship. What do I need to do?

The Internship and EDU 677: Seminar in School Management, should be the last set of courses you need to take before graduating from the Educational Leadership Master's. The internship can also be taken to fulfill the capstone requirement in our post-master's (CAS) in Educational Leadership program.

Please notify Jody Capelluti at joseph.capelluti@maine.edu as soon as possible if you believe you are ready to start the Internship with the next group, the orientation will be held at the end of April 2018. Faculty will review your transcripts and contact you to inform you of your eligibility.

When does the Internship and EDU 677 Seminar in School Management take place?

EDU 685: Principals, EDU 686: Special Ed. Director, and EDU 688: Curriculum Coordinator Internships are nine graduate credits in total (three credits a semester) that span three consecutive semesters (summer, fall, and spring, respectively). The course meets once every two or three weeks for the whole year. During the summer, the meetings take place during the day, and during the fall and spring, the meetings occur from 7-9:30 PM. Individual meetings with you, your mentor, and your instructor are scheduled three times a year.
