

GEOGRAPHY-ANTHROPOLOGY MAJOR – SUSTAINABLE CULTURES & COMMUNITIES SPECIALIZATION
FALL 2015 AND BEYOND

The minimum number of credits (exclusive of the University's Core Curriculum) required for the major: 36

All students must take:

GEO/ANT 105	Society, Environment, and Change
ANT 101	Anthropology: The Cultural View
GEO 101	Human Geography
MAT 120	Introduction to Statistics - as part of the University Core Requirements

Students who elect to specialize in Sustainable Cultures & Communities must also take:

Methods: 6 credits minimum from list, at least 3 credits from each GEO & ANT

ANT 315	Ethnography: Methods, Ethics and Practice
ANT 360	Public Archaeology
GEO 209	Introduction to Land Use Planning
GEO 305	Remote Sensing
GEO 308	GIS Applications I
TAH 211	Tourism Entrepreneurship

Topical Electives: Select courses from the following list to total at least 18 credits. At least 6 credits must be from each prefix (GEO & ANT) and at least 6 credits at or above 300 level.

ANT 202	Origins of Civilization
ANT 213	Human Ecology
ANT 220	Indigenous Studies of North America
ANT 222	Peoples of the North
ANT 232	The Anthropology of Sex and Gender
ANT 233	Food and Culture
ANT/TAH 241	Tourism and Community Development
ANT 255	Cultures of Africa
ANT/TAH 301	Global Issues in Travel and Tourism
GEO 104	World Regions
GEO 120	Geography of Maine
GEO 170	Global History: Mapping the World Across Cultures
GEO 203	Urban and Regional Development
GEO 210	Planning Maine Communities: Current Issues and Directions
GEO 255	Making a Living: Workers in the Global Economy
GEO 302	Gender, Work, and Space
GEO 303	Economic Geography
GEO 402	Urban Geography
GEO 455	Gender, 'Race' and Class in the City
GEO 450	Topics in Geography
GEO 481	Megacities and Global Planning Issues
GYA 210	Perspectives on Environment, Society, and Culture since 1750
ESP 275	Energy Use and Societal Adaptation
TAH 251/ANT 299	Ecotourism & Sustainable Development
TAH 341/ANT 450	Tourism, Development & Sustainability

Capstone (3 credits minimum, any of the following will count towards this requirement): GYA 300 Field School, GYA 350-351 Internship, GEO 360 Field Mapping in the Island Environment, GYA 400 Independent Study, a summer travel course, or study abroad

Additionally, all Geography-Anthropology majors are required to demonstrate writing competence by completing either two research papers or one research paper and one research product (e.g., poster, media project) in the major with grades of C or better, from two different professors, circulated and reviewed by the Department at least one semester prior to graduation.

The maximum number of hours of internships, field experience, and/or independent studies that can be applied toward the major is 9 hours. All students must meet with their advisors before registering for courses each semester.