                                                                                                                                                                                                                      b. Record hours worked (up to 8 hrs) as Straight Comp Time Saved (CMxSV- x code varies by bargaining unit) to bank time for future time off. To use saved comp time, enter CMxTK (Comp Time Taken).
                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Exception If employees are expected to take their makeup holiday during the same holiday week, then their comp time for working the holiday will not be available yet. If they do not have an equivalent amount of comp time already saved, have them record HOL on the day of holiday even though worked and REG on the alternate day off even though they did not work. This will document the proper amount of time worked and pay the employee correctly, but just won’t document their actual work days.
