ALDRICH_THEOLOGY - Theological Roundtable: Exploring Apocalyptic Thinking

Description

Surprised to learn that apocalypse is a tenet of ISIS’s philosophy? Concerned about the current state of world affairs? How has apocalyptic thinking shaped the development of the “big three” monotheistic religions? What might the notion of apocalypse serve within the human psyche? We’ll retrace the roots of apocalyptic belief and its influence on history, from 6th BCE Zoroastrianism to contemporary times (prophets, cults, millenarians). Combining lecture, film clips, and discussion, we will consider Judaism; Biblical Sources: First Enoch; Daniel; Revelations; Christianity; Islam/Qu’ran; Occult Thinkers/Secret Societies; and, time permitting, Ragnarok (Norse mythology), Native American, and Mayan interpretations. Where does all of this leave us? Join the dialogue, and see! No prior study of religion or theology needed. Reading materials will be provided.
