

AED 399/599 Topics in Art Education: Expressive Art Practices for Educators

July 6th - July 31st, 2020
online course

Instructor: Marie Sheffield, Art therapist, LCPC

This course will introduce students to theories and practices from the field of Expressive Arts, especially as it connects to k-12 Education. This course will assist students in developing teaching strategies that support Expressive Art practices in k-12 classrooms and community art contexts. The following topics will be explored, including but not limited to: Intercultural communication, strategies for encouraging social emotional growth, trauma informed teaching, and ways to develop healing art practices.