Dear Delegate,

Thank you for your interest in the Maine Model United Nations Conference (MeMUNC). We are thrilled to be able to offer scholarships and financial assistance. Through the generous support of John Wasileski, The Highlands, UNA-Maine and other MeMUNC Alumni, our goal of providing global exposure to as many students as possible is closer to being realized.

We understand that the cost of MeMUNC, while significantly lower than other Model UN conferences, can still be a barrier to participation. Therefore, we will be awarding scholarships based on demonstrated need, willingness to work hard and dedication to MeMUNC. Partial and full scholarships will be awarded. Please be realistic and honest in your responses.

Your information will be kept strictly confidential and utilized only to make award decisions. Teachers/Advisors will be notified of any award given. Please fill out the application below by typing directly into the form. Email completed applications to anna.gervais@maine.edu or print and mail to:

Maine Model UN Program
University of Southern Maine
102 Bedford Street

If you have any questions please send them to Tim Ruback, Director of the Maine Model United Nations Program at timothy.ruback@maine.edu or Anna Gervais, Chief of Staff at anna.gervais@maine.edu. Applications are due by April 30th, 2016.

Thank you, and good luck!
