A12 Maine Sunday Telegram, Sunday May 3, 2020

CONFRONTING THE PANDEMIC

FOR A COMPLETE LIST OF WHERE TO TURN FOR HELP: preshared.com/2020/05/15/coronavirus-outlook-where-to-turn-for-help

WHERE TO TURN FOR HELP

RESISTING YOUR BUSINESS

On April 28, Gov. Janet Mills released a plan for gradually reopening Maine’s economy. An explanation of the plan, including a timeline and approach, health metrics and safety measures, can be found at maine.gov/covid19/ restoration

A12

RESISTING MAINE. The page approach, health metrics and safety measures can be found at maine.gov/covid19/ restoration

Mills announced a plan for being continually updated Maine. The list below will help/ contributions, in-kind Ave.), daily: breakfast, 8 a.m.-

3 p.m.; Soup Kitchen (252

Portland, 8 a.m.-9 a.m. (with special discounts); Walmart, Tuesday,

8 a.m.-9 a.m. (with special

K-12 and/or college students

which does business as

owner can be found here:

hay, feed and farrier supplies.

Maine horse owners in need, including hay, feed and veterinary services.

Can help by picking up

The AARP has set up AARP

Mainers can be connected to support agencies around the state by the including the Taxpayer Service and email contact information have a phone number you can

K-12 and/or college students

which does business as

owner can be found here: