The following three fall 2015 courses have been approved to count in the International Business track:

ECO 315 Economic Development
The theories and practices of interregional and international economic development. Special attention is given to developmental problems of emerging nations. Prerequisite: any 100-level ECO course.

HTY 334 The Holocaust: Policy, Practice, Response
An examination of the roots of anti-Semitism in European history, the development of the policy of the extermination of the Jews and others in Nazi Germany, and the implementation of the policy throughout Europe during the Second World War. The varied aspects of the response of individuals and governments to the experience of the Holocaust are also considered. Prerequisite: HTY 102. Another course in twentieth-century Europe or the United States is also recommended.

HTY 394 Modern Japan Rise and Fall
This course will examine Japan’s reaction to the challenges from the West, its reform efforts, and its ways of seeking international recognition. Japan’s remarkable success gave rise to its imperialist ambition. The course will discuss when, why and how the Japanese polity and military embarked on the road to the China War and the Pacific War.
