

Storyboard “Preflection” Exercise:

In this reflection exercise, you will create a storyboard for a movie “short” that depicts how you hope grow or sustain service-learning and civic/community engagement at your institution and what role you will play. YOU are the star of this movie!

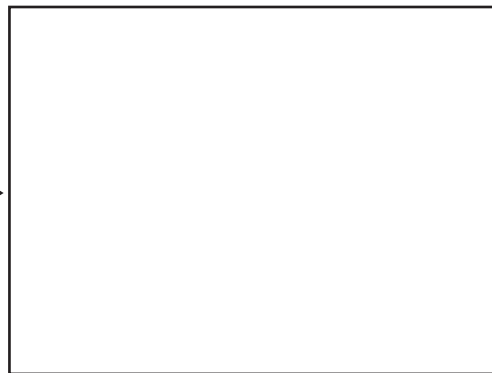

In telling your story, think about these questions: Where are you now? What are your goals? What are your strengths? What change do you want see? What will your role be in this change? Where is your program now, and where do you see it in 3-5 years?

Tips: Is this an action/adventure, drama, comedy, horror, sci-fi, fantasy, crime genre, buddy movie, art film, silent movie, or maybe a western? You can use text, found images, collage, hand drawing, stick figures or any visual means to depict this. Don’t get caught up in the artistic quality of your storyboard. You will have a chance to explain this and tell your story at the Institute. You can use the back of this sheet to write out your story as well.
