Sir George Calvert was an English Lord and a real gentleman. That means he acted like one. He was not a poor boy who had to do everything for himself; he was very wealthy. He was also energetic, Lord energetic wealthy and Maryland daring. Sir George made things hard himself by becoming a Catholic. The very king did not like Catholics.

But, remember, Spaniards, French, and Portuguese did not also religion English Protestants. This may seem a bit, but was serious, but was serious, were happy tiresome took business back in 17th century. You could your head off if you practiced the wrong. You could your head off if you practiced the wrong religion

Sir George didn’t get his head off, but he was forced to wealthy to cut from his important government position. Since liked him (he was a real), things worked out. The Irish – who were Catholic – were happy when the king acted gave for him land in Ireland and named Baron of Baltimore. Then, King Charles who really liked Sir George, gave a colony in America. They named Maryland. That was said to be honor of the king’s Catholic wife Henrietta Maria, although some say Calvert meant to honor Many, the mother Jesus Christ.

important Maria really harmony stayed of Sir George dreamed of colony “founded on religious freedom, one Irish it a those bold enough to take the.” It was George Calvert’s son, Cecil, actually founded the colony. He thought Spaniards Henrietta English Catholics could live in harmony with. Many Catholics did go to Maryland, expected daring Protestants not as many as expected. Even, the new Lord Baltimore, but back bit thought live Cecil didn’t go. Cecil just stayed home and took the money that came from his colony.

Sir George Calvert was an English Lord and a real gentleman. That means he acted like one. 1 was not a poor boy who 2 to do everything for himself; he was 3, very wealthy. He was also energetic 4. He made things hard 5 himself by becoming a Catholic. The very king 6 did not like Catholics.

But, remember, 7 Spaniards, French, and Portuguese did not gentleman you the. 8 Protestants. This may seem a bit 9, but was serious wife practiced like happy tiresome took business back in 10 17th century. You could your head 11 off if you practiced the wrong 12.

Sir George didn’t get his head 13 off, but he was forced to wealthy to cut from his important government position. Since 15 liked him resign when tiresome if and everyone (he was a real 16), things worked out. The Irish – who 17 everyone George resign out were Catholic – were happy when the king 18 him land in Ireland and named 19 Baron of Baltimore. Then, King Charles 20 who really liked Sir George, gave 21 a colony in America.

They named 22 Maryland. That was said to be 23 honor of it new then in risk of the king’s Catholic wife\textsuperscript{24} Henrietta Maria, although some say Calvert Queen himself like

\textsuperscript{25} meant to honor Many, the mother \textsuperscript{26} Jesus Christ.
important Maria really harmony stayed of Sir George dreamed of \textsuperscript{27} colony “founded on religious freedom, one Irish it a

\textsuperscript{28} those bold enough to take the \textsuperscript{29}.” It was George Calvert’s seem for it risk he the son, Cecil, \textsuperscript{30} actually founded the colony. He thought \textsuperscript{31} an honor who Spaniards Henrietta English

Catholics could live in harmony with \textsuperscript{32}. Many Catholics did go to Maryland, expected daring Protestants

\textsuperscript{33} not as many as expected. Even \textsuperscript{34}, the new Lord Baltimore, but back bit thought live Cecil didn’t go. Cecil just stayed home and took the money that came from his colony.