University of Southern Maine

THINKING MATTERS

Friday, April 18, 2025

Once submitted your abstract becomes a Google doc. You and your mentor will be added to the Google doc once it has been reviewed by a committee member. Please address any comments on the abstract.

Submit abstracts no later than Sunday, March 16, 2025

Space is limited, one presentation (poster or oral) per abstract. If you want to be a Primary Author on more than one abstract/presentation, please request an exception from Thinking Matters. thinkingmatters@maine.edu

Title of Project character limit of 250

Abstract: character limit of 2500

Primary Discipline of Presentation:

- Biological Sciences
- Engineering
- English
- Environmental Science
- Leadership
- Math
- Physics
- Social Science
- Technology
- Other

Presentation Type:

-Choose one, space is limited.

[If you want to be a Primary Author on more than one presentation, please request the exception from Thinking Matters and submit another form. thinkingmatters@maine.edu

-Digital Commons only is intended for students graduating in December and not available in April.

- Poster Presentation (48"x36" poster landscape)
- Oral Presentation (typically a PowerPoint in front of an audience)
- Digital Commons Only
- Other

Presentation setup needs: Available: poster printing, backboards, and IT support for PowerPoints.

Primary Institution for this project:

- University of Southern Maine
- Maine Community College
- MaineHealth Research Institute
- Other

Undergraduate or Graduate

Primary Author's Name: Primary contact for this abstract

Primary Author's email: UMS, Use your @maine.edu email address

Primary Project Mentor Name, Degree: The person overseeing this project, faculty or staff, etc

Primary Project Mentor eMail: Please check for accuracy

Additional Authors:

Additional Presenters' emails: Please check for accuracy

If your research involves interaction with people or vertebrates, has it been reviewed by the Office of Research Integrity? https://usm.maine.edu/orio/

- Yes, No, Not Applicable, I don't understand the question

Comments/Questions: